GATEWAY CORRIDOR PUBLIC MEETING

WHERE: ADVENTURE SCIENCE CENTER
800 FORT NEGLEY BLVD, NASHVILLE, TN 37203

WHEN: TUESDAY, February 12, 2008
5:00-7:00 P.M.

The Metropolitan Government of Nashville-Davidson County will conduct an informal public meeting to discuss the Gateway Boulevard (formerly Shelby Avenue/Demonbreun Street) Corridor project and its modified proposed terminus in the vicinity of 8th Avenue South in Nashville. The project is intended to enhance east-west transportation links and improve accessibility to the Central Business District and future development in the area south of Broadway (SoBro).

A portion of the Gateway Boulevard Corridor project has already been constructed from the Korean War Veterans Memorial Bridge to 4th Avenue. Metro is seeking public input for the remaining unbuilt portion of the project, extending westward from Korean War Veterans Boulevard at 4th Avenue South to the vicinity of the existing intersection at Lafayette Street and 8th Avenue South.

For further information, visit www.nashville.gov/pw/Gateway_project or call (615) 862-8730.
